To the attention of the heads of institutions issuing statements of support

In accordance with the legal provisions referred to in the statement data collected with academic support and manuscripts written using these data can only contain sensitive personal data in anonymised form. If revealing sensitive data is inevitable at any point of the preparation of these works, after their publication (multiplication or the placement of one single copy in a public library), all responsibility rests with the supporting institution and the head thereof.

To the attention of researchers

In accordance with the above quoted regulation the Statement of support can only be accepted by the archives if it bears the long as well as the circular stamp of the institution and the name of its head (for universities the dean, or, if the applicant is an undergraduate, the head of department) in printed form as well as their signature.
